ERASMUS+ Program

Key Action 1 – International Credit Mobility

CALL FOR THE ASSIGNMENT OF STAFF MOBILITY GRANTS FROM EGYPT TO ITALY A.A. 2015/2016

ART. 1 OBJECTIVES OF THE ERASMUS+ PROGRAMME

With the EC Regulation 1288/2013, after the conclusion of the “Lifelong Learning Programme” (2007-2013), the European Parliament established the Erasmus+ program (2014-2020), to support education, training, youth and sport.

Mobility actions included in the Erasmus+ Programme allow cultural experiences abroad, to get knowledge of new higher education didactic systems, to improve the linguistic knowledge and to meet young people from other countries; thereby actively participating in the construction of an even more integrated Europe.

In particular, the new “Key Action 1 – Learning Mobility of Individuals” includes the instrument called “International Credit Mobility”, which allows the mobility actions from and towards the Partner Countries, with Higher Education Institutions, which has signed an Erasmus+ Inter-institutional Agreement with UNINETTUNO. In particular, for the academic year 2015/16, the program allows the staff mobility for teaching and for training, which is the subject of this call.

INFORMATION REGARDING THE PROGRAM ERASMUS + BE FOUND ON THE SITE
