

UNINETTUNO University and the Université Catholique de Lille signing for a Double Degree in BUSINESS MANAGEMENT AND DIGITAL TECHNOLOGIES

On Wednesday 27 January the UNINETTUNO Rector Prof. Maria Amata Garito and the Rector of the Université Catholique de Lille Prof. Patrick Scauftaire, have signed the Double Degree academic agreement for the Master of Science in 'Business Management and Digital Technologies'. The program will be proposed with an innovative 'blended' approach combining some of the best European experiences in online teaching in e-learning mode (Uninettuno) and traditional teaching (the Université Catholique de Lille). The first year will be in e-learning mode through the UNINETTUNO teaching model, while the second year will be in presence at the Campus of the Catholic University of Lille.
